

Harassment and Bullying Policy

MAINfm will not tolerate behaviour from visitors/members/presenters/staff that threatens or harms anyone at the Station.

All members must treat each other with dignity and respect at all times.

This Policy applies to Station premises and wherever the Station has an event outside the Station.

It is the responsibility of all persons involved with the Station to ensure proper standards of conduct are upheld in the Station and to ensure the environment is free of inappropriate behaviour.

It is the right of every individual to undertake their involvement with the Station in an environment that promotes personal satisfaction, maximises program performance and ensures the reputation of the Station is upheld at all times.

All complaints should be immediately reported to the Station Manager or Office Manager or a Committee of Management member.

Anyone who violates this policy may be required to leave the premises until an investigation is conducted.

Refusal to leave the premises if requested will result in Police being notified?

We encourage anyone who experiences breaches of the policy to report it immediately to the Station Manager or Office Manager or the Committee of Management.

Confidentiality is especially important because of the sensitive nature of the problem itself and the risk that someone's reputation might be publicly damaged.

In all cases, the utmost care will be taken to investigate complaints impartially, recognising the rights of all parties.

The behaviour below will not be tolerated, as they may cause major physical or emotional harm.

1. Sexual Assault or Abuse
2. Physical Assault or Abuse
3. Harassment
4. Bullying behavior
5. Hate Speech

Sexual Assault refers to any unwanted sexual behaviour which makes a person feel uncomfortable, threatened or scared.

Sexual Abuse includes both touching and non-touching behaviour.
